

Falling Into Fun at the Pumpkin Patch

There's something about a crisp fall day, colorful pumpkins, and a little sunshine that makes autumn in Oregon so special!

This week, Mitzi, Aimee, and Joey headed out to Hoffman Farms for a little fall fun as part of a CHI Day Support Activities outing, and judging by their smiles, it was a wonderful day!

With pumpkins of every shape and size, hay bales, colorful flowers, and charming harvest displays, the farm was dressed in all its autumn glory. The two enjoyed exploring the pumpkin patch, taking in the beautiful scenery, and stopping for a few pictures along the way.

One highlight was the old green farm truck overflowing with pumpkins and fall decorations. It made the perfect backdrop for a great photo and captured everything we love about this time of year.

And what a beautiful day they had! Blue skies, sunshine, and all those wonderful fall colors made for a perfect October outing.

Our Day Support Activities program is always finding fun ways to get out and enjoy the community, and fall offers so many wonderful opportunities! From pumpkin patches and harvest celebrations to simply enjoying the changing colors of the season, there's plenty to see and do.

Sometimes, a little fresh air, good company, and a visit to the pumpkin patch are all you need for a lovely afternoon.

Here's to cozy sweaters, colorful leaves, pumpkin patches, and all the simple joys that make fall such a wonderful season!

Happy Fall from all of us at CHH!
